Procedure for Request for Withdrawal

- All requests for withdrawal from the program of study must be submitted in writing.
- The students must complete the Withdrawal Request Form and arrange for a meeting with the Financial Aid Officer.
- Once the College receives a withdrawal notice from the student, the Senior Manager, Sales and Operations will review the request and the reasons for withdrawal. They may offer the student confidential counseling to ensure that the decision is well-informed and that the student understands the financial implications of withdrawing from the program.
- All withdrawals are subject to the latest refund policy .

Multihexa College must pay the tuition or fee refund within 30 days after receiving notice of withdrawal or refusal of study permit; providing a notice of dismissal, or the date on which the first 30% of the hours of instruction are provided (no-show).
